This insurance document is evidence of the cover we have effected on your behalf and in accordance with your instructions. This Schedule is subject to the terms and conditions of the Policy Wording and any endorsements. It is important that you read this document carefully.

DUTY OF DISCLOSURE
We would like to draw to your attention that you have a duty to disclose every material circumstance you know or ought to know, after a reasonable search. This applies before the cover is placed, when renewed and at any time during the duration of the Policy. A circumstance is material if it would influence the Insurer's decision whether to accept the risk, including its terms and pricing. If you are in doubt whether a circumstance is material, it should be disclosed. A failure to disclosure material circumstances may entitle your Insurer to void the Policy or impose different terms and could affect claims made and whether they will be paid.
